

U-Learn Conference 2010 – Christchurch - Summary of Learning

Report by: Tanya Filia Kohukohu

Course Title: Digistore – Te Pataka Matihiko Helen Cooper – helen.cooper@minedu.govt.nz	Presenter: Helen Cooper Te Rā: - 5/5/2010 Te Wā: - 3:30
Key Points: NB: use google to store presentations – so we can save presentations on line and ring bind presentations including web pages and downloads Digistore – can be found under TKI – Te Kete Purangi Digistore is still under development Communities/resource collections Digistore is a collection of resources which has a range of resources for school use. You need a Digistore log in – Log in on TKI – self register or ESA number Searches can be done via level, learning areas Accessing Digistore page can take you to a link to register online (personal logon) Student pin for learning pathways – easy for students to gain access Digistore – quality assured content for ECE through to Secondary Audio clips, images, interactive and multi media resources – historical footage Resources and documents I think series – explores values and concepts – student sharing series Animations Language learning objects Maths learning languages, literacy and science are well developed and have the most resources available at present. Works through visual material = linear tools, multiple views of the same thing. Providing a range material Educational use and not for commercial use licences Digistore resources can be used by you: you may copy for use, put on server, intranet resources – acknowledge source and do not crop work – model this for students Advanced search is being updated currently. Home Pg: frequently asked questions to embed documents etc...	Relevance to teachers: Up to date collection of resources Digi news by monthly newsletter you can register for (See key points) Educational value: Support information Cross level Cross curricula Can be modified All content can be rated - - you can comment Sort by ratings in your searches, this shows 5 stars – instead of going through the entire list of search results To set up a Learning Paths: Log in, select item to add, select learning path (set up folders around learning areas and or class groups), edit (you can change title, description, etc) Learning paths: - task this assists with Ease of access, collections, home-school partnerships, personalise learning, embed links and tools, in class
Summary: Learning pathways – set up learning pathways for our student to use. This is quality assured content – and easy access path – set up for students prior to work or topic they are interested in.	Strategies / Suggestions Register your school Use Digistore in your classrooms Find resources to use in your classrooms Visual material to be used in your class Set up learning pathways – for your students

U-Learn Conference 2010 – Christchurch - Summary of Learning

Report by:Tanya Filia Kohukohu

--	--