

Summary of Learning

Report by: Desire'e Andrews-Upperton

Course Title: Skype Voice Thread	Presenter: Suzanne Vesper Te Rā: - Rāmere 8 o Whiri-a-nuku 2010 Te Wā: - 9:00am
Key Points: Voice Thread Downloaded from the web and uses images, doc's, sound Power of voice thread is the usage of recording student voices – record of reading response Resources Web sites below are a must to look at if you want key info on Wiki's and embedding etc www.learningweb2.wikispaces.com www.educationalsoftware.wikispaces.com Publishing written work – orally presenting stories http://voicethread.com/share/82909 Demonstrating learning – showing understanding of science concepts http://voicethread.com/share/518159 Demonstrating learning – PE skills and learning http://voicethread.com/share/155469 Art portfolio's – explaining motivation http://voicethread.com/share/18427 Expressing opinions and debating issues	Relevance to teachers: Voice Thread Brilliant for all students of all ability levels

Summary of Learning

Report by: Desire'e Andrews-Upperton

<http://voicethread.com/share/62276>

Idea centred discussion – ideas and comments created by way of previous discussions from both teacher and students.

Self and Peer assessment Reflecting

Setting up a voice Thread – register – account - create

Alana King
Suzanne Vesper - suzievesper@gmail.com

If you want to connect to other schools best way could be by connecting with others through Twitter

Skype within the class bringing experts into the class – Book Talks –
Skype and authors
<http://www.booktalks.org.nz>

Summary:

The Voice Thread is another great tool which can be used for a variety of different activities
Voice Threads can be used as an assessment tool, it can be shared to the internet, reporting to parents.

Strategies / Suggestions to implement into the classroom:

To sign up/register as single educator for free beyond there is the option to purchase for up to 100 students.
Take a look! It's fun!

Summary of Learning

Report by: Desire'e Andrews-Upperton

--	--